BOULDER BRIEFS.

Minstrel Shows and the Circulation of Pardon Make Things Lively.

BOULDER, Mont., June 24.—"Dr." E. N. Ellis of Butte, the painless toothpuller, and a gang of darkies have been making life a hideous dream to the people of Boulder, Elkhorn and Wilkes the past week. He has control of the "Star Specialty Comedy company," which has been trying to pass off a one horse minstrel show in this county. He and his company were in Boulder Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and played to a very slim audience the first evening. The second evening nobody came at all, and the hotel keepers, printers and others have suffered accordingly. His dental tools are held here in lieu of payment of board and the company has gone out of town.

Pat Galvin of the Helena Independent has been in town several days the past week.

The Y. P. S. C. E. gave another of its socials last evening at the residence of Dr. E. L. Fletcher.

Boulder will celebrate the glorious Fourth by an old time celebration, which will consist of a parade in the morning, followed by an oration by Hon. Thomas J. Gafrith, after which a ball game will be played between the Comrades of Butte and a picked nine from Boulder, Basin and Elkhorn. Horse races, bicycle and foot races will take up the rest of the day.

Mrs. H. E. Daldine, who has been spending the last year in the East, will arrive in Boulder soon. She will be accompanied by her friend, Miss Ruth Kellogg.

County Attorney M. H. Parker arrived in Boulder Thursday morning, accompanied by his wife. They are domiciled at the Hotel Windsor.

Dean Vickers of Virginia City is visiting in town.

Efforts are being made in Boulder to secure the pardon of John Thompson, alias J. A. Powell, who was arrested a year or so ago for being implicated in a train robbery in Texas some years ago. He was taken to San Antonio, where he had his trial, and received a sentence of five years imprisonment at hard labor in the penitentiary at Detroit, Mich. He is now serving out his sentence in the reform school at Detroit.

Several attempts were made last evening to burglarize the residences of W. B. Gaffney and Mrs. W. H. Parkison, but the supposed burglars were frightened away.

BALMY BILLINGS.

Social Life in the Yellowstone Valley City—Parties and Receptions.

BILLINGS, June 24.—On Thursday evening Mrs. Harry Allen gave a reception in her charming home on Twenty-ninth street. Though the invitations were limited to ladies there was an attendance of 75 or 80. Everything combined to make the evening one of unqualified success.

The weather was perfect, the ladies were tastefully decorated with flowers, the dining room representing an especially attractive appearance. Here the decorations were yellow. Over the dining table hung a lamp with a yellow shade. From the ceiling above were suspended four yellow satin ribbons which were caught at the four corners of the table. A bowl of yellow roses stood in the center of the table. The sideboard also was banked with roses. Here Mrs. A. L. Babcock, Mrs. E. H. Becker, Mrs. H. Rowley and Mrs. P. M. Gallaher dispensed dainty refreshments.

Several excellent vocal and instrumental selections were given by the ladies and the members of the male quartette, one of whom is Harry Allen, arriving late in the evening crowned its success by singing several selections in their usual good style. The occasion of the entertainment was the 12th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

A very pleasant social event which took place this week was the o'clock tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Horace Williston to her girl friends. The table from which the delicious refreshments were served was decorated with yellow roses. Here Mrs. Williston was assisted by Miss Annie Jones and Miss Lilla Soule. The only married ladies present were Mrs. George Hayes and Mrs. L. P. Williston. After tea the party adjourned to the lawn and enjoyed themselves thoroughly, till darkness coming on warned them that, as there were no gentlemen present, however loath to go, it was time for them to take their departure. The young ladies who attended the party were the Misses Jones, Fraser, McConnell, Matheson, Pantan, Ryon, Ryon, Soule, Sanford, Shoemaker, Walk, Wilkinson, Whitney.

Last Sunday evening the Methodist church was crowded. Several had to turn away, not being able even to find standing room. It was children's day and the church was tastefully decorated with flowers.

The old Clark building was consumed by fire Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Gogerty have been in town for several days.

Major Wyman was in town this week.

Mrs. George Soule went East last week. She will visit the world's fair and be absent several months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tutt came down from their ranch at Rapids Saturday to obtain treatment for their little daughter Margaret, who had been so unfortunate as to dislocate her arm. She is now progressing nicely.

A great many people were in from the country Tuesday to attend the circus. The storm which usually accompanies a circus at Billings arose just as the people were dispersing after the afternoon performance. It was chiefly a wind storm and fortunately did no mischief and did not last long.

Clifton George returned Saturday from a visit to his parents in Missouri. Mr. George is to deliver the oration at the Stillwater celebration on the Fourth of July.

Fred Sanford, son of J. T. Sanford of Laurel has returned from the business college which he has been attending at Spokane Falls.

S. P. Pantan and J. D. Whelpley are in town this week.

Sidney Fox came down from Red Lodge Monday night on his return to Helena. He has been out for a hunt in the neighborhood of Red Lodge.

Miss Wright came down on the train from Livingston Sunday night.

Frank Hurley and bride from Minneapolis, registered at the Grand hotel Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Whitney, with their little daughter, returned to Junction Monday, having come up the previous Friday. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Burton.

Professor Ralback of the Helena Business college is here looking after the Billings branch of the institution.

Mrs. E. H. Lee left for the East Sunday morning. She will visit the world's fair during her absence.

W. R. Stebbins, the banker from New York, is here looking after his business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Handell of the Musselshell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Peck this week.

G. H. Allerton was up from Miles City this week.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church have presented Mrs. Cook, the wife of their pastor, with a purse containing a generous sum.

There was a whistling match at which only lady competitors were allowed at the entertainment given by the young people at the Congregational church last Saturday evening. Judge Milburn, Colonel Rowley and J. B. Herford were the judges. Mrs. F. H. Bean carried off the head prize, Miss Allie Walk the second, and the booby prize was won by Miss Alice Townsend.

A most lamentable accident happened to John Sluder at the round-up on the Musselshell the other day. He was driving the mess wagon of the Black outfit. The horses got on the Reins rock, and in his endeavors to extricate them he was struck on the back by the wagon. His spinal column was dislocated. This was followed by paralysis. The unfortunate young man was brought to town Wednesday. He was under the care of Dr. Redd of Miles City and was being conveyed to the hospital at Fort Keogh, where he will have skillful medical treatment. His condition is serious in the extreme. Much sympathy is felt for him and his family.

The Billings Dancing club gave a very pleasant farewell hop at the Grand hotel, last Friday evening, to Miss Whitney.

Mrs. Childs returned Sunday evening, having spent two weeks very pleasantly at Hunter's Hot Springs and Livingston.

A PLEASANT CONCERT—Parties and Receptions.

BOZEMAN, June 24.—Thursday evening, the opera house was the scene of a very successful musical entertainment given under the auspices of the Bozeman City band. The affair was a most pleasant one, for the band boys were enabled to secure for their concert the best local talent, as will be apparent by the names on the following programme:

Quick March—Dorling
Bozeman City Band.
Piano Duet—Les Creiels (with sleigh bells)—Bocoritz
